Confession is Good for the Soul

Saturday 29th February 2020

The Very Revd Andrew Nunn

10.00am-3.30pm

(including lunch & refreshments)

£23.00

About the Day

Confession is good for the soul

The Anglican adage about making your Confession is 'All may, none must, some should'. But we know how good it feels when we get something off our chest, when we have had the chance to say sorry to someone. But it can go deeper than this. This day will explore what a gift the Sacrament of Reconciliation is and how we can make it part of our own lives.

Programme

- 9.45am Arrivals and welcome refreshments
- 10.00am Session 1 – 'But I'm not that bad!'
How do we understand sin in our lives? Are we always as good as we imagine ourselves to be?
- 11.00am Refreshment Break
- 11.15am Session 2 – Bible Study – 'The forgiving Father'. Luke 15.11-32 is one of the most popular parables in the gospels. But instead of the son let us look at the father.
- 12.10pm Eucharist with the Community of the Resurrection (optional)
- 1.00pm Lunch
- 1.45pm Session 3 – Making my confession. 'So, I think I might make my confession – but I have no idea how to go about it.' How do we prepare for the grace of this sacrament?
- 3.00pm Liturgy of Reconciliation. We end the day by sharing in a Liturgy of Reconciliation, giving thanks that God is always ready to forgive us.
- 3.30 Close and Depart
